Mark Fowler

Legislative Assistant,
U.S. Representative Peter Welch (D-Vt.)

Mark Fowler is a legislative assistant for Representative Peter Welch. In this role, he advises the Congressman on energy, environment, and agriculture policy, as well as related matters within the Energy and Commerce Committee. Prior to joining the Congressman, Mark served as a policy aide in the office of Senator Claire McCaskill where he also worked on energy and agriculture policy. Outside of work, Mark serves on the leadership team of the Clean Energy Leadership Institute, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to training the next generation of clean energy professionals. A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Mark graduated with honors from the University of Missouri where he studied economics and political science and was admitted into the Phi Beta Kappa honor society.
