

Congressional Briefing Agenda

Reinventing Existing Buildings: The Path to Increasing Energy Productivity

Thursday, September 17, 8:00 am to 12:30 pm

Hart Senate Office Building, Room 902, Washington, D.C.

8:00 am to 8:45 am Registration & Continental Breakfast

8:45 am to 8:55am Welcome Remarks

Kateri Callahan, President, Alliance to Save Energy

8:55 am to 9:10 am Keynote Remarks

The Honorable Rob Portman (R-OH)
United States Senate

9:10 am to 10:00 am Reinventing Existing Buildings through Technological Innovation & Integration

Moderator: Roland Risser, Director, Building Technologies Office, U.S. Department of Energy

Speakers: Jim Madej, Senior Vice President & Chief Customer Officer, National Grid

John Galyen, President, Danfoss North America

Clay Nesler, VP, Global Energy and Sustainability, Johnson Controls Inc.

Jay Dietrich, Distinguished Engineer for Corporate Energy and Climate Policy, IBM

10:00 am to 10:50 am Reinventing Existing Buildings through Sound Policy

Moderator: Franz Wuerfmannsdobler, Senior Policy Advisor, Office of Senator Coons (D-DE)

Speakers: Ralph DiNola, CEO, New Buildings Institute

Tim Wentz, Treasurer, ASHRAE

Francis Slakey, Executive Director, Georgetown Energy Prize

Curt Rich, President & CEO, North American Insulation Manufacturers Association

10:50am to 11:20 am Coffee & Networking Break

11:20 am to 11:35 am Keynote Remarks

11:35 pm to 12:25 pm Reinventing Existing Buildings through Innovative Financing

Moderator: Robert Sahadi, Director, Energy Efficiency Finance Policy, Institute for Market Transformation

Speakers: Cathy Snyder, VP, Energy & Environment, Lockheed Martin Washington Operations

Michael Bruce, Director, Hannon Armstrong

Claire B. Johnson, President & Founder, CBJ Energy

12:25 pm to 12:30 pm Closing Remarks

Kateri Callahan, President, Alliance to Save Energy

*Invited Speakers